ROLE OVERVIEW
Ocean Youth Advocate Volunteers play a key role in raising awareness about ocean conservation issues and advocating for sustainable practices with youth in their communities. Volunteers engage in outreach activities and educational initiatives targeted at youth to promote ocean stewardship and inspire positive change within their communities.

RESPONSIBILITIES
Distribute educational workshops, seminars, and outreach events to promote AltaSea’s mission and program initiatives among youth. Share information about AltaSea’s focus clusters: regenerative aquaculture, renewable energy, blue technology & underwater robotics, and marine ecosystems to promote the Blue Economy for a sustainable ocean. Participate in youth led initiatives to educate and inspire the next generation of ocean leaders.
